Appeal From Order No. 97 of 2004

Hon'ble P.C. Verma, A.C.J.

Heard Mr. B.P. Nautiyal, learned counsel for the appellants and Mr. Lok Pal Singh, Advocate for the respondents.

This appeal is filed against the order dated 12.2.2004 passed by ADJ/FTC-II, Haridwar.

From the perusal of the order dated 12.2.2004 granting the status quo, which is impugned in this appeal, it is clear that the comparative hardship, prima facie case, balance of convenience and irreparable loss, all these factors have been taken in account while passing the statement of maintaining the status quo by the parties.

Therefore, I do not find and merit in this appeal and the appeal is, hereby, dismissed. Parties are directed to maintain status quo.

However, it is provided that the trial shall be concluded within two months.

(P.C. Verma, A.C.J.)

Dt. 17.06.2004

G